

Memorial Brochure

Welcome

We are proud to present you with our comprehensive memorial brochure.

Our responsibility is to help guide you through the process of choosing a fitting monument for your loved one, the selection of which is very personal.

We fully understand you may feel unsure of where to begin so we have broken the brochure down into specific areas and have included as much information as we can. That being said we are always at the end of the phone or an email if you need any help or have any questions at all.

Materials & Designs

Granite - for everlasting memorials

Granite is the hardest material we offer and is extremely durable. It is available in a range of colours. Polishing granite brings out the true natural beauty of this material. A range of finishes can be seen throughout this brochure including polished, honed and rustic effects. Ornamentation is achieved by carving, etching or sandblasting.

Italian White Marble - the traditional memorial material

Sourced from Italy. Marble was once a very popular material and is known for its ease of carving. The appearance of this material has been synonymous with the splendour of memorial carvings for centuries. Ideally, marble should not be used near trees or in damp areas due to its porous nature which can cause it to attract mould or algae.

Stone

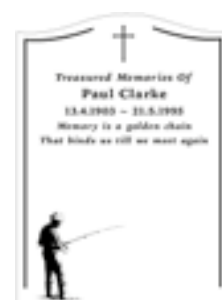

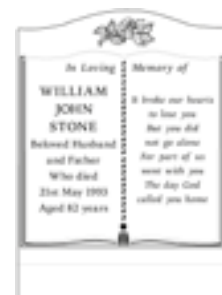

Materials such as nabresina, Portland stone and sandstone (see pages 34-35) are mainly used in churchyards where their neutral tones are widely accepted.

The Memorial

Looking through this brochure you will find a large choice of memorials in various styles and colours. Granite memorials can be chosen in any colour (see pages 34-35) and many elements are interchangeable so you can create the design that best suits your requirements.

The Inscription

Once you have selected the memorial the next step is to choose the wording for the inscription. A selection of popular inscriptions and verses are shown below but a more comprehensive list is available on request. You also have the freedom to compose a message that expresses your own sentiments. Be sure to discuss the inscription with relatives and close friends, and feel free to contact us if you require any guidance. Once you have decided on the inscription we will send you a proof layout. You can then make any changes if needed before our masons begin their work.

- Not gone from memory, nor from love (29)
- Peace, perfect peace (17)
- *Gone is the face I loved so dear
Silent the voice I loved to hear
Tis sad but true, I wonder why
The best are always the first to die* (102)
- *We had no chance to say goodbye
But for you dear, we will not cry
But in our hearts we'll hide our pain
Until some day we'll meet again* (104)
- *We cannot bring the old days back
Her/His hand we cannot touch
But we have such lovely memories
Of the one we loved so much* (94)

Marble Memorials

Marble has long been used to create memorials to the notable people in history. But it's ability to enable elaborate or subtle carving also makes it an ideal material to create a beautiful headstone for your loved one.

Cremation Memorials

Our range of memorials for use in the ashes plots within a cemetery are discretely styled but offer the same opportunities for applying your own personalised inscription as a traditional lawn memorial. A wide selection of styles and materials are available, from the simple slabs shown on page 23 to more decorative examples.
